It includes consents from you to disclose certain information to other organisations described below. Your loan may be consumer credit or commercial credit.

The mortgage manager will submit the application to a credit provider to consider. If the credit provider approves the application, it may seek lender's mortgage insurance (LMI) cover from a lenders mortgage insurer or title insurance cover from a title insurer or both in relation to your loan.

In this privacy notice and consent, "credit eligibility information" means information an organisation described below obtained from a credit reporting body or that is based on information obtained from a credit reporting body.

PRIVACY NOTICE

This privacy notice tells you how certain organisations collect information about you, what they use the information for and who they share the information with. If any of those organisations collect information that can be used to identify you, it will take reasonable steps to notify you of that collection.

ORGANISATIONS THAT COLLECT INFORMATION ABOUT YOU

This privacy notice and consent covers the organisations that may collect information about you relating to the application or your loan or a guarantee of the loan that are listed in the Schedule. Each of those organisations is described below separately as "we" and "us". The LMI insurers and the title insurer are described together below as "insurers".

HOW INFORMATION IS COLLECTED FROM YOU

We will collect information about you from you directly whenever we can. Most information will be collected from the application and from the records we maintain about the products or services you receive from us. We may verify that information from sources referred to in the application or in this privacy notice and consent.

Sometimes an LMI insurer may also collect further personal information about you during the course of the LMI cover provided to the credit provider for your loan. The terms of this notice and the LMI insurer's Privacy Policy and Credit Reporting Policy will apply to the collection, use and disclosure of that information.

HOW INFORMATION IS COLLECTED FROM OTHER SOURCES

Sometimes we will collect information about you from other sources as the Privacy Act 1988 permits. We will do this only if it's reasonably necessary to do so, for example, where:

We or the lender may verify your identity via electronic means.

- As required by law, regulation or codes binding it; and
- Any purpose to which you have consented.

You can let the credit provider or the mortgage manager know at any time if you no longer wish to receive direct marketing offers from them. They will process your request as soon as practicable. Also, the credit provider or the mortgage manager may use credit information about you to:

WHAT HAPPENS IF YOU DON'T PROVIDE INFORMATION

If you don't provide your information to us, it may not be possible:

- to provide you with the product or service you want. For example, if information is not disclosed to an insurer, it may not be able to process the credit provider's request for insurance. In that case, the credit provider may not be able to assess this application;
- for the credit provider or a mortgage manager to manage or administer the loan the credit provider makes to you;
- verify your identity or protect against fraud; or

We may disclose your personal information and credit-related personal information when we apply to the Insurer for lenders mortgage insurance (LMI). By you signing this application, the Insurer can do the following:

Where permitted by the Privacy Act 1988, the Insurer may seek and obtain from a credit reporting body commercial credit information concerning your credit worthiness or history; consumer information; and collection of overdue payments information.

The Insurer collects your information for the purposes of assessing our application and securing and administering LMI for your mortgage, including dealing with claims and recovery of proceeds.

The information collected by the Insurer is required under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) and is necessary for the Insurer to undertake its business. If you do not provide any of the information requested of you then the Insurer will not be able to issue insurance. As a result, we may not be able to provide the mortgage to you.

The Insurer may use your information to assess the risk of providing LMI to us, you defaulting on your obligations to us and you being unable to meet a liability arising under a guarantee in respect of mortgage finance given (or to be given) by us to another person.

The Insurer may also use your information to verify your details provided by us, administer or vary any LMI cover provided (including for securitisation and hardship applications, dealing with claims, recovery of proceeds and enforcing the mortgage in the place of us), to conduct risk assessment and management involving securitisation, credit scoring, portfolio analysis, reporting, fraud prevention and claim recovery, to comply with any regulatory requirements including under the Privacy Act 1988 and Insurance Contracts Act 1984 as amended from time to time, and for any other LMI purpose relating to you or under the insurance policy issued by the Insurer to us in respect of your credit with us or as may be permitted by the Privacy Act 1988.

The Insurer may disclose your information to its related companies; us; your guarantor or potential guarantor; other insurers; claims assessors and investigators; parties for the purposes of securitisation; re-insurers; underwriters; loan servicers; trust managers; trustees and security trustees; organisations involved in surveying or registering a security property or which otherwise have an interest in a security property; ratings agencies; credit reporting bodies; its service providers (including marketing companies, data consultants and IT contractors); its agents, contractors, and external advisers; your referees, including your employer; your legal and financial advisers; brokers or referrers that submitted applications on your behalf or referred you to the mortgage manager; organisations that are involved in debt collecting or in purchasing debts; mercantile agents if you default on your obligations to us; payment system operators; parties involved in fraud prevention (including organisations such as fraud reporting agencies, that may identify, investigate and/or prevent fraud, suspected fraud, crimes, suspected crimes, or other serious misconduct); other financial institutions and credit providers; and government and other regulatory bodies (e.g. the Insurance Council of Australia, ASIC and the ATO).

Where permitted by the Privacy Act 1998 the Insurer may disclose your information to organisations located overseas (including in the USA, Canada, the United Kingdom or the Philippines) such as its related companies, re-insurers, service providers (including but not limited to data consultants and IT contractors), its agents, contractors and external advisers and government and other regulatory bodies. Overseas organisations may be required to disclose information shared with them with relevant foreign authorities under a foreign law. In those instances the Insurer is not responsible for that disclosure.

The Insurer may also, to the extent permitted by the Privacy Act 1988, disclose information about you to a credit reporting body for any purpose set out in this consent. The credit reporting body gives other organisations (such as other credit providers) information to help them assess your credit worthiness. Some of the information may adversely affect your credit worthiness (for example if you have defaulted on your loan) and accordingly, may affect your ability to obtain credit from other credit providers.

The Insurer may need to exchange your information with credit providers and advisors during the course of the mortgage insurance policy for any purpose set out in this consent.

The Insurer may seek and obtain further personal information (including sensitive information) about you during the course of the mortgage insurance policy. The terms of this consent and the Insurer's Privacy Policy and Credit Reporting Policy apply to the collection, use and disclosure of that information.

- a. how you can access and seek correction of your information held by the Insurer;
- b. how you can complain about a breach of the Privacy Act 1988 (including any applicable privacy principles) or any registered privacy code that binds the insurer in respect of your personal or credit information (as appropriate); and
